

Terms and conditions:

Thank you for your interest in the work of MVRDV; here are the rules for the free use of the material in the Press Room:

1. The name of the photographer needs to be mentioned at all times when published, readable near the picture used. The names of photographers appear in the text file sent with every download, along with the related image file name and its caption.
2. The project name and the name of MVRDV is to be mentioned with every publication, readable in the vicinity of the picture.

Copyright for the images is not transferred to the publication and remains at all times in the hands of the photographers or MVRDV as applicable.

Images can be used free of charge for:

- Publications about MVRDV and the buildings depicted
- Academic publications

Under the condition that MVRDV receives a copy of or a link to the publication (digital copy to pr@mrvdv.com or a hard copy to MVRDV, Public Relations, Dunantstraat 10, 3024 BC Rotterdam, Netherlands).

In certain countries the rules of Pictoright (Netherlands), VG Bildrecht (Germany) or others, will apply to all print publications, and some digital publications. In these countries, the local copyright institution affiliated to Pictoright may contact the publication to pay a fee if the publisher does not already have an agreement with this copyright affiliate. See a list of these affiliates on the next page.

Images cannot be used free of charge for:

- Advertisements of any kind. In this case, separate terms and conditions apply, please contact MVRDV at pr@mrvdv.com
- Publications that are not related to the work of MVRDV. If this is your intention we would like to discuss them with you, please contact MVRDV at pr@mrvdv.com
- Publications about MVRDV that exceed 20 pages or 5 projects; or publications that have solely the work of MVRDV as their subject. If this is your intention we would like to discuss them with you first, please contact MVRDV at pr@mrvdv.com

Students can use the images and other material for their studies (we are honoured if you do) and the same terms and conditions apply. MVRDV and any photographers need to be properly credited and you must send pr@mrvdv.com a digital copy of the work. This will be filed in our archive and ultimately in the archive of Het Nieuwe Instituut in Rotterdam. Any material you send will remain private and confidential and will not be judged or disseminated any further.

If you download any of the images or other material from our press room you agree to these terms and conditions.
